"Own a Home"

THERE can be no such thing in the highest sense as a home, unless YOU OWN IT. There must be an incentive to plant trees, to beautify the grounds, to preserve and improve. It elevates a man to OWN A HOME. It gives a certain independence, a force of character that is obtained in no other way. A man without a home feels like a passenger. There is in such a man a little of the vagrant. HOMES MAKE PATRIOTS. He who has sat by his own fireside with wife and children, will defend it. When he hears the word country pronounced, he thinks of his home.

Few men have been patriotic enough to shoulder a musket in defense of a boarding house.

The prosperity and glory of our country depend upon the number of our people who are the OWNERS OF HOMES. Around the fireside cluster the private and the public virtues of our race.
